ELONGATED COINS

D. F. Fairbanks, Sr.

The first known rolling of coins occurred at the Columbian Exposition of 1892 - 1893. Coins, or other material used for "blanks" are rolled out, not stamped, usually upon small portable machines consisting of reverse-engraved steel dies and rollers. Newer machines are electric, much improved over the old hand-crank types. Coins (blanks) are run through the machine, pressing the design into them (and elongating the shape of the blank at the same time) as they pass between the roller and die.

Elongated issues are made from coins of different nations and different denomination as well as on blanks of paper, cardboard, wood, glass, leather, or other metals. It is illegal to roll elongated coins in all countries except the United States, but a few issues have come out of Canada, England, Argentina, France, Mexico, and others.

Originally started as money-making souvenirs from fairs, world expositions etc. they have now evolved into elongated mementoes being rolled out of almost any material for any event or activity. Prices of these items vary greatly, depending like all collectibles on rarity or scarcity, supply and demand, condition, etc. Presidential and political elongates abound, and though a price-guide exists, it is of little value, since as you know collectors will pay whatever they believe necessary to add an item to their collection.

Elongates may be found at flea markets, antique shows and shops, coin shows, or coin dealers, as well as other collectors. Prices range from 25¢ to $800.00 (the highest known price) for one older issue. There are between 750-1,000 general collectors across the country, plus many other topical & specialty collectors of elongates (like people who add JFK or RFK elongated coins to their political collections).

Some of the many Kennedy issues include his Inauguration, assassination, the launching of the USS JOHN F KENNEDY, and many other Kennedy-related events. They have been rolled from Lincoln cents, Kennedy halves, nickels, Roosevelt dimes, silver dollars, etc. Designs vary with some including pictorial images while others have words only.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Within his 10,000+ piece collection, Mr. Fairbanks own some 160 JFK related elongated coins. Many are the same issue rolled on various denominations or metals, from Indian Head cents to Peace or Morgan silver dollars, and even one $3.00 gold piece. He has a beautiful set of 20 rolled Kennedy half dollars, and a dozen RFK issued items as well.

Maybe some of these items belong in your collection. If you'd like to find out what John or Robert Kennedy elongated coins are available, you can obtain a list from Mr. D. F. Fairbanks, Sr., 5937 Beadle Drive, Jamesville NY 13078.

If you have any Elongated Coins for sale, old type or new issues, please feel free to contact Mr. Fairbanks to either sell or trade, or to buy some of his many issues he has available for sale.
Also if you are interested in a copy of the Martin-Dow Elongated Coin Book, a few copies are still available. Once these are sold that's it, as all of Mr. Martins copies are sold and Dottie Dow's copies are all gone. This book is due to become a collectors item in a few short years. The Hard Cover copy is already selling for $50.00 a copy now and these soft cover books that are available will soon become a "hard to find item." Write Mr. Fairbanks today.
A few soft cover copies available at only $12.50 plus postage.

SETTING A GUINNESS WORLD RECORD

By TOM GERHARDT
P.O. Box 135
Keystone, S.D. 57751

To promote the celebration of the 50th Anniversary of Hoover Dam, a Boulder City, Nevada business man, Kae Pohe decided to set a Guinness World Record for the longest line of coins laid end-to-end. The initial idea was 10 miles of pennies laid from Hoover Dam to Boulder City but for safety reasons coins were placed 4 wide halfway to the Dam and through part of Boulder City, for a total distance of 21,391 miles.

On the morning of September 21, 1985 more than 700 volunteers began laying 1,807,296 pennies. Four hours later all coins were in place, with the Disney characters, Mickey and Minnie Mouse laying the last pennies.

For photographic purposes, most of the coins were shiny 1985 pennies. I requested some pre-zinc pennies to be included for me to use in producing a limited edition of 6700 Guinness World Record Elongated Coins, as the new zinc pennies are unacceptable for producing a suitable collectable souvenir of this great event.

When the record was declared official, these copper cents were rushed to me in the City Park and I began rolling them as fast as I could, with my assistant, Terri Zarling, sticking them to a Certificate of Authenticity, stating that this penny was part of the new Guinness World Record for coins laying and a commemorative to the magnificence of the construction of Hoover Dam, fifty years ago. These Elongated Coins will be sold with the certificate of authenticity to raise money for the Boulder City Museum.

Congratulations to Kae and Liz Pohe and the hundreds of Volunteers that made this new record for coin laying a complete success.

The Guinness World Record Elongated Cent with Certificate of Authenticity (Limited Edition 6700) is available at $2.00 ea. with SASE

Also available is a Hoover Dam Golden Anniversary Elongated cent, Type 1 and Type 2 at .50¢ ea. with SASE

For any of the above Elongated Cents write to The Penny Man.

"SAY IT WITH ELONGATEDS"

Most of you have probably seen or heard the phrase "Say it with flowers" used in floral ads. Why don't we as numismatists "Say it with elongateds".

To celebrate the birth of our first child I wanted to do something different than pass out cigars. I contacted Frank Brazzell about two months before the baby was born, sending him basic design with the names we chose.

The day the baby was born all I had to do was call Frank and let him know whether it was a boy or girl. Three days later I had my special birth announcements.

Everyone though that using an elongated coin for a birth announcement was a unique idea. Most people had never seen one before, but several requested Franks address because they knew someone expecting.

Other events that could be celebrated on elongateds are Weddings, Anniversaries-25th or 50th, Graduations, Retirement, Moving-new address, ect. Many of these events are available in generic form, but a personal touch (names-dates, ect) would be much more special. Imagine handing your loved one a gold coin with his or her name on it with "I love you".

Though the initial cost of personalized elongateds would be more expensive than flowers or cigars the per piece cost would be less. Besides, flowers die and have you tried mailing a cigar to Seattle through the mail? Think about it! Why not try elongateds??

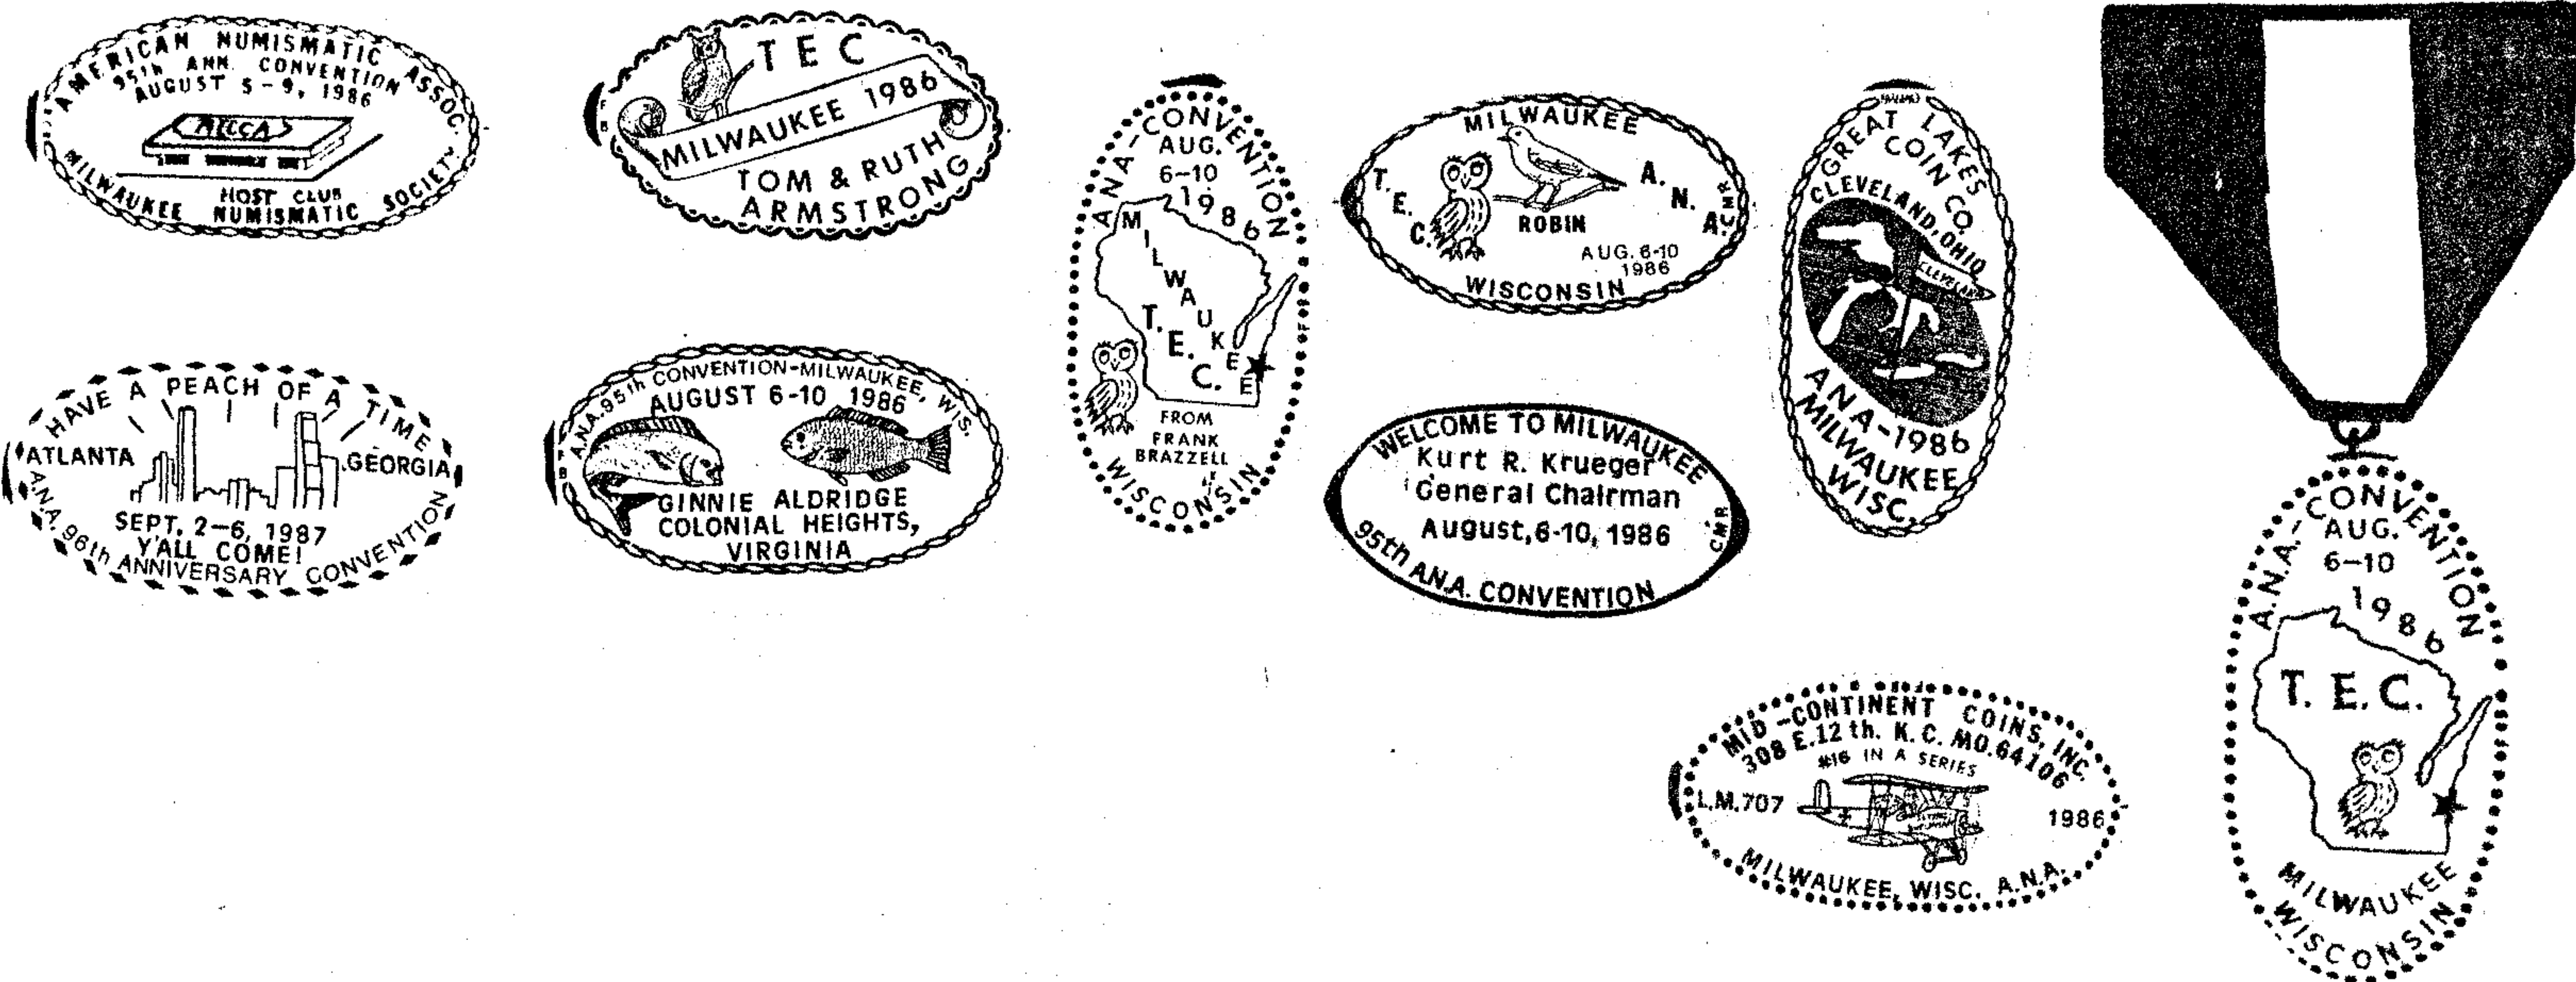

Elongated Advertising of Alaska is enjoying Alaskas' long, warm, sunny, summer days fishing. We credit our extraordinary luck to an unusual handcrafted fishing lure. The unusual part of this lure is the spinner, it is a 1959 Lincoln cent. 1959 is the year that Alaska became a state. The obverse is graced with stylised hand lettering of the word Alaska and; an extra deep two tone engraving of a grayling. The grayling is one of Interior Alaskas' most sought after sport fish.

This elongated fishing lure comes gift boxed and can be yours, for only $5.00 plus $1.00 postage & handling, or the elongated grayling may be ordered seperatly for $2.00 postage paid, from Elongated Advertising of Alaska, 611 Cowles Street, Fairbanks, Alaska 99701

The fact that I will not be able to attend the TEC Meeting in August at the ANA Convention in Milwaukee, prompts me to write about meetings and reunions for this special convention issue of the TEC Newsletter. First I will definitely miss seeing and being together with all the nice folks that I met in Baltimore at the TEC meeting there during the ANA Convention last year. Secondly I will miss the opportunity to meet the members in attendance that were not at the meeting in Baltimore. However the reason I am not able to attend is because it falls at the same time as my WW II Army Outfit Reunion. It will be our 39th Annual Reunion and as I have never missed one, I can't break the string. The fact that I am also President, Treasurer and Editor of the quarterly newsletter is another reason for me to be in attendance. Those of you that obtained the 35th Annual Reunion of the 508th LP Engineers Elong-coin-card that I produced know some of the history of my outfit from the biographical information on the card. Yes our ranks grow smaller as the years go by but our 508 family is still in tact and going strong. Now to let you in on a little secret if you haven't already figured it out, an organization is only as strong as it's members and the officers it has leading it. I for one would like to take this most opportune time to say "Thank You" to the present officers and all of the past officers of the TEC since it's inception in 1966. Twenty years of working to keep the organization going and growing. Yes I say growing even though we have lost many members along the way I feel that even greater years are ahead for our organization and it's there for you all to enjoy. So let's all roll up our sleeves and help make it grow along with our elected officers. Let the theme for this be "Elongates are on the move, this we are out to prove". Sign up new members, talk about your hobby, show your collections and support your club. You will be surprised how much interest you can stir up in people just by doing these things.

Now in closing I only have two things to add, to all TEC members in attendance I wish you a grand time, an enjoyable meeting, fruitfull information to add to your pleasure of collecting elongates. To all newcomers or prospective members to TEC, WELCOME.

ELONGATED COINS MADE FOR THE A.N.A. AT MILWAUKEE, WI. FOR 1986 MEETING.

Pictured here are some of the different Elongated Coins made for this years A.N. How many of these do you have? Some are available at the T.E.C. Table. Others are limited to only 200 or 250 rolled. The T.E.C. Badge is limited to only 72 this year. A very low mintage and due to become a real collectors item. Other Elongated coins are also available that are not pictured here. Do you have some that are not shown here? Fun to collect. Why not join the T.E.C. club? Check out the T.E.C. Table here at the show. Pick up some free Elongated Coins.

Vice President, T.E.C.

T.E.C. WANTS YOU!!!

If you are reading this item, you are in Milwaukee at the American Numismatic Association Convention. Welcome and have fun.

This complimentary special issue of T.E.C. News has been given to you by The Elongated Collectors. A member of our organization will read it with pleasure. What will the non-member do? Will you have questions as to how coins are rolled, who rolls them, is it legal to roll United States Coinage, how is it done?? Ask someone at the T.E.C. table here at the convention. Your questions will be answered by volunteers manning the table.

I have been a member of T.E.C. for many years and have yet to find a more rewarding hobby. It is fun looking for additions to my collection at Coin Shops, flea markets, dealers tables at coin shows, and antique shops, even yard sales may turn up an Elongated coin now and then. Finding that special elongated coin I need is not the only pleasure derived. Many friendships have been formed and knowledge shared through the mail.

Do you want to have as much fun as I do? Just fill in the application form on the back side of this page and send in with only $5.00 to the secretary. We hope you will join us in this fine hobby.

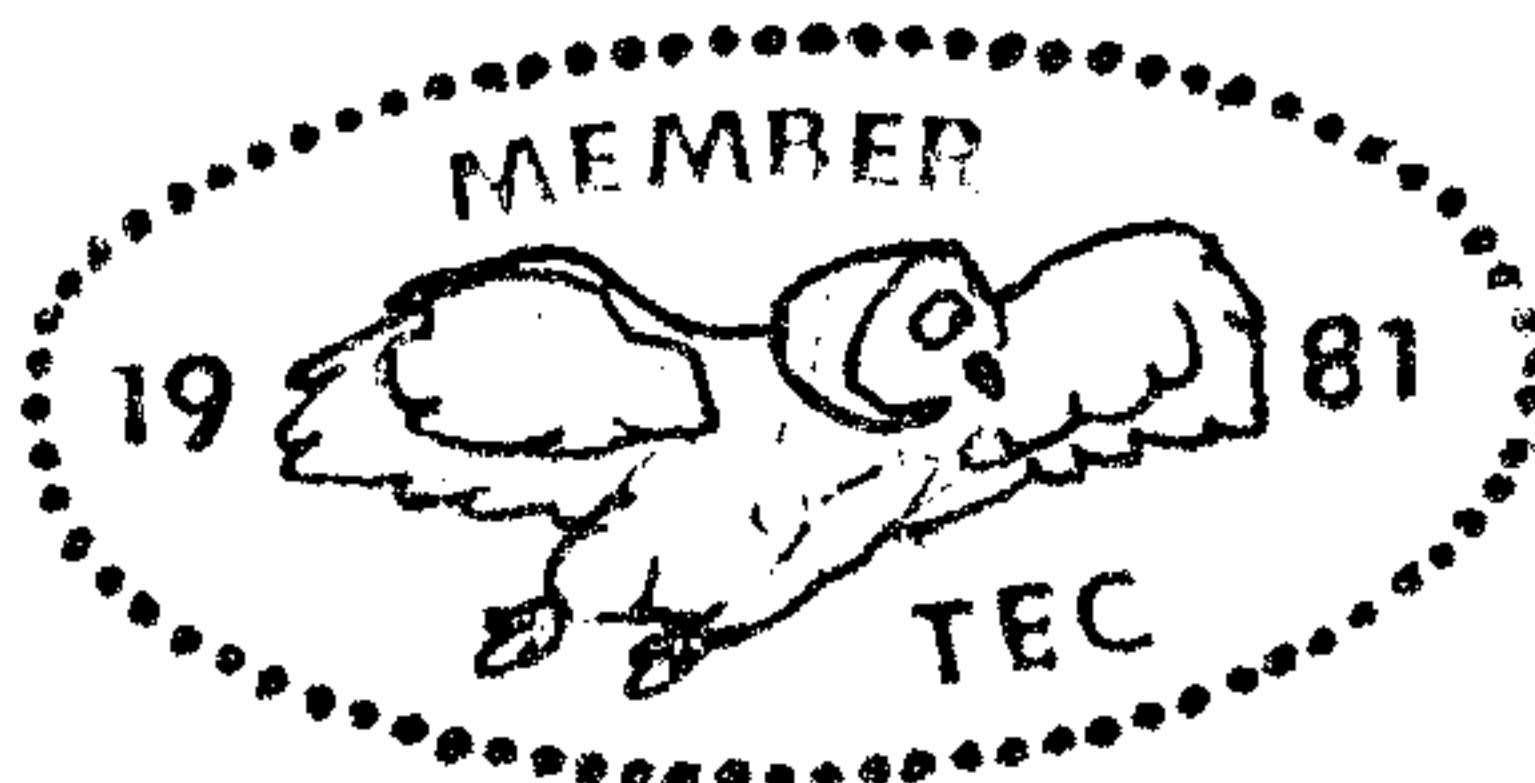

Listed below are many of the advantages you receive by being a member of T.E.C.

Stop by the T.E.C. table and pick up some free Elongated Coins donated by some of our members for you to enjoy. Yes, they are FREE!
